Cube Meet

Designed for focused collaboration

Cube Meet creates dedicated meeting place within open environments, combining privacy, acoustic comfort and a controlled indoor climate, enabling focused collaboration while staying connected.

Designed as part of the interior
Cube Meet integrates seamlessly into the workspace, aligning with architecture, materials and layout.

Optimised for collaboration
Designed for small to medium-sized meetings, with acoustics that support clear conversation and focused discussion.

Part of the overall workspace
More than a room within a room, Cube Meet contributes to the acoustic quality and experience of the entire office.
